

Nome Midnight Sun
FOLK FEST
June 23-24, 2001

The Nome Midnight Sun Folk Fest
is seeking area

MUSICIANS, BANDS, CHOIRS, DANCE GROUPS
for a day of live performances!

Date: Saturday, June 23
Place: Anvil City Square
Time: 2 p.m. until evening

The Nome Midnight Sun Folk Fest Committee is planning a day of live bands, art and craft sales and demonstrations, food and fun! Local bands and a headliner band from Portland, Oregon, will play most of the day on a stage in front of Old St. Joe's (rain site: Nome Rec Center). Food and craft vendors will ring the square. There will be activities for kids!

- This is a true folk festival in that any folk musicians can perform. No musicians are paid except for the guest band, The Dickel Brothers, sponsored by the Nome Arts Council.
- A sound system will be set up. Live music only—no recordings!
- Playing time will be divided evenly among performers; sets will last about 30 minutes, depending on how many groups sign up. It's OK to play just a song or two.

Deadline: You must submit the form on the back of this page by Thursday, May 31!

Questions? Contact Bob Metcalf at 443-5115 (evenings) or 443-2201 (days) or send e-mail to bob.metcalf@uaf.edu
