

Nome Basketball League 2025/26 General Information Sheet

ATTENTION:

There will only be one season this year instead of the normal two half-season format in the past. The season will last approximately 10 weeks and finish with a single-elimination postseason tournament.

Game nights will be Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. There is a possibility of a Wednesday night during Thanksgiving Week and/or Subway Showdown Week but that will not be determined until all teams have been registered.

The league will attempt to schedule each team at least one game per week. However, with only nine-twelve time slots available per week, should more than 18 teams register or in the event that there are uneven numbers in each division some adjustments might need to be made.

The league will start on Monday, November 3rd and go through the third week of December. There will be a 2-week holiday break before play resumes on Monday, January 5th, 2026.
